

Learner Reflection in the Process of Reading

Please answer these 3 questions before you open the book.

1. When (what time of day) and where are you reading this book?

.....

2. Are you looking forward to finding out what the story is about?

.....

3. Or do you think this is just another piece of homework you have to do?

.....

Now start reading the story and then answer these 3 questions after you read half of the story (marked).

4. Approximately, how many words did you look up in the dictionary? .....

5. Can you understand what is happening in the story without the dictionary?

.....

6. Are the new words spoiling the experience of reading this story?

.....

Now read the story to the end.

7. List all the feelings you experienced while reading the story. If possible, explain your feelings.

8. What is the mood of the story?

.....

.....

9. What is the message/the theme of the story?

.....

.....

.....

.....